ProAtlântico - Associação Juvenil is a non-profit youth organization, founded in 2001 in Oeiras (Portugal) and carries out projects with children, young people, elderly people, and disabled people.

We are sending, hosting and coordinating organization in EVS. Since 2006 we hosted more than 150 European, South American and Asian volunteers and sent more than 400 volunteers abroad to Europe, Africa, Asia and South America.

Today ProAtlântico with his 13000 members, gives special attention to people in need and to those with fewer opportunities, aiming to give people the chance to establish contact with other cultures, in order to help them to find ways to deal with their own problems and to break the existing prejudices.

Profile of the volunteer

The project requires that the volunteers must be very human, self motivated, proactive, creative, with handwork skills, with self-initiative, willing to take on new challenges, very flexible and ready to help in different tasks of the children/young people education and life.

A high motivation to work with children and young people and special interest on music, dance, theatre, sports, cooking, computers, handicrafts, gardening, history, can be an added value, since these areas their fields of interest and will be the way to reach their attention. So, is expected the volunteers have a positive attitude, patience and good listening capacity.

The volunteers must be open minded and tolerant to work with people with fewer opportunities with different backgrounds and affected by different problems (ex: education difficulties, coming from broken families/orphans, young people with mental illnesses, with low economic resources, high cultural differences, etc.).
